MANSIONS EXPANDS COVERAGE AGAIN!

Mansions of Australia (Mansions) today released details of a number of significant improvements to its Home and Contents policy.

Over 400 brokers will receive a Mansions brochure outlining the improvements which will take effect from 1st January 2010 for new business and renewals.

The enhancements include but are not limited to:

- Valuable item limit increased from $15,000 to $25,000
- Fine art, antique item limit increased from $50,000 to $250,000
- Introduction of termite cover as an optional extension up to $25,000

Mike Hooton, Director of Mansions of Australia said:

“Last year we made a number of significant improvements to the Mansions proposition. As a result, Mansions has re-established itself as a genuine choice for brokers placing high net worth home insurance.”

He said:

“The further enhancements we have made demonstrate that Mansions is the pre-eminent Lloyds backed high net worth home agency in Australia.”
